Let the art touch you

OBJECTively Speaking:

On Sunday March 2, 2008, Fuller Craft Museum's monthly 'meet the artist' series features Boston artist Gina Kamentsky.

Gina Kamentsky, sculptor, toy designer, inventor, musician and teacher combines fantasy and reality in one of a kind mechanical toys and kinetic sculptures. Her solo exhibition, Gina Kamentsky: Mechanical Confections, will be on exhibition in Fuller Craft Museum's Daniel Tarlow gallery through November 9, 2008.

Fuller Craft Museum, New England's only museum of contemporary craft, is dedicated to the objects, ideas, and insight that inspire both patrons and artists to explore life through the art of contemporary craft. For a complete list of OBJECTively Speaking guests and topics visit www.fullercraft.org.

Artist: Artist Gina Kamentsky works primarily with found materials and metal. Her work in film and animation recently premiered at the Institute for Contemporary Art in Boston. The afternoon will include a slide show presentation and conversation with the Mechanical Confections artist.
