For the fourth year Fuller Craft Museum is proud to host this inspiring exhibition of student art. Recognized across the Commonwealth since 1986, the Southeastern Massachusetts Arts Collaborative, better known as SMARTS, is a year-round nonprofit organization dedicated to the arts and creativity. This dynamic multifaceted arts organization provides people of all ages with discipline-based and interdisciplinary training, education, and performance experiences.

The SMARTS Middle School Touring Art Exhibit was initiated by the SMARTS Collaborative in 1993 to provide SMARTS middle school teachers an opportunity to show their student's work to each other and to the community at large. Selected pieces from the exhibit are then assembled in a traveling display that moves throughout the SMARTS middle schools.

Join us for our reception on Sunday, March 4, 2018, from 11:00 am - 1:00 pm. Stay for our Brother Thomas reception from 2:00 - 5:00 pm.
