Ever dream of building your own tiny house? Designer, microbuilder, and HGTV host, Deek Diedricksen builds a tiny house at Fuller Craft Museum in Barstow Gallery. Register for the full three-day workshop and be part of the process, including the Friday night pre-build party with food, drink, music, and short talks by five amazing women builders, The Women of Tiny. Come and tour a fully functioning tiny house provided by Craft & Sprout of Connecticut. The microshelter created for the upcoming FORTitude: The Art of Play exhibition will be raffled off when the exhibition ends. Be sure to buy your ticket ($15) and a chance to win a tiny house of your own.

The three-day tiny house workshop weekend includes:

- Tiny House Pre-Build party on Friday, May 4, 6:30 – 11:00 pm (details below)
- Two-day building workshop Saturday & Sunday, May 5 - 6, 9:00 am – 7:00 pm

Weekend Schedule:

Tiny House Workshop

Saturday & Sunday, May 5 – 6, 2018, 9:00 am – 7:00 pm

Learn to build with Diedricksen and his team of builders. The workshop includes 22 hours of building and instruction. You can get a grasp of the skills, tools, and direction needed for your build. This workshop is fitting for all skill levels, including absolute beginners, as we have several hosts on board to take you through the build and show you the ropes. The full workshop includes coverage on framing, roofing, rafter cutting, sheathing, plunge cut, heating systems, base building, door/window placement, and more.
