The physical Museum Shop carries works by 144 local and nationally renowned artists. It has always been a local favorite. Museum visitors have commented on the remarkable quality and selection of goods they've discovered. “It's a rare shopping experience you save for a visit with good friends or for day of art and reflection to treat yourself,” says the new Museum Shop Manager Adriana De Castro. “You can't replace those experiences, but now you can certainly preview and shop online for a selection of the same treasures.”
