Tending the Fires: Recent Acquisitions in Clay presents recent additions to Fuller Craft's ceramic collection. Exhibited works represent a range of processes and conceptual approaches in clay, from Cheryl Ann Thomas's slumped, coiled sculpture to Jun Kaneko's painterly "dango" to Steven Young Lee's deconstructed pot. Figuration also comes into play, with strong examples by Patti Warashina, Akio Takamori, and Tip Toland. Fuller Craft Museum is proud to shine a light on the clay triumphs of these renowned ceramicists while proudly displaying the institution's recent collecting achievements.
