We are pleased to announce the reopening of Fuller Craft Museum. We will be open Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays (10:00 am – 5:00 pm) for the month of August, with admission by donation for all guests, suggested donation $12. We'll return to our full schedule beginning September 1. Visit our website for updated hours. We open with a special Museum Member's only preview day on Saturday, August 1, and to the general public on Thursday, August 6.

The overwhelming support in these last few months from our audience has kept us hopeful and sustained our staff and the Museum so that we may open our doors again to offer respite from the challenges faced in these times. We are forever grateful for the kind words and loyalty to Fuller Craft. Through the generosity of the Massachusetts Cultural Council, Windgate Foundation, and others, several much needed facilities renovations were completed while the building was empty.

Our team has revised our exhibition schedule and worked diligently to present Shelter, Place, Social, Distance: Contemporary Dialogues from the Permanent Collection, exploring how the universal subjects of home, place, community, and distance are represented in Fuller Craft

Museum's permanent collection, opening on August 1. We extended viewing dates, offering more time to visit or revisit several current exhibitions:

- Human Impact: Stories of the Opioid Epidemic on view until August 16, 2020
- Serious Bling: Radical Jewelry Makeover – The Artist Project on view until November 22, 2020
- Stephanie Cole: Secular Cathedral on view until January 10, 2021
- James Grashow: The Great Monkey Project on view until January 31, 2021

In the current health crisis, safety of our guests is our first priority. We have taken CDC and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts' recommendations to create a safety protocol, requiring masks and physical distancing to protect visitors. Our building will undergo touchpoint cleaning throughout the day and include hand sanitization stations for guests. Click here to see our full safety and visitation guidelines. We look forward to seeing you all in August and welcome you back to enjoy our beautiful space.
