About the Organization
Fuller Craft Museum is New England’s home for contemporary craft. As one of only 8 contemporary craft museums in the United States, Fuller Craft is among the fastest growing, most unique institutions in the northeast.

Fuller Craft Museum (FCM) offers expansive opportunities to discover the world of contemporary craft. Through exhibitions, collections, education, and public programs, we challenge perceptions and build appreciation of the material world. FCM is an accredited art museum dedicated to contemporary craft and is open to the public year-round.

Job Description
FCM seeks an enthusiastic, creative, and highly organized individual to join our team and help fulfill our museum mission of creating an accessible life-long learning environment and bringing craft to the diverse communities we serve. The Learning Programs Coordinator will primarily administer and supervise our Museum Educator (docent) program, our internship programs, our paid studio classes and workshops, and our tour bookings and reservations. These programs connect local organizations, students, and community members with opportunities to learn about the museum, art, craft, and more.

The position is a full time, salaried, exempt year-round position for $42,000 a year for 32 hours a week (Tu-Fri, 9 am – 5 pm, with some weekend and evening work required). The position reports to the Director of Learning & Engagement (DoL) and is eligible for benefits including medical and dental insurance (80% employer paid), retirement with 3% employer match, and paid time off. FCM offers a flexible work environment with the possibility of partial remote work.
